Equal Opportunity Centre : Summary of Requirements, Guidelines and Responsibilities

1. Introduction:

The equal opportunity centre (EOC) is established to ensure inclusivity and equal access to educational and social resources for disadvantaged groups, including SCs, STs, BC, Minorities, Women and Physically Challenged Individuals. Despite constitutional provision and government initiatives, these groups continue to face social exclusion and discrimination. The EOC aims to create an inclusive academic environment that promotes equal opportunities and reduces social disparities.

2. Objectives:

- Oversee the implementation of policies and programs for disadvantaged groups.
- Provide academic, financial, and social guidance and counselling.
- Enhance campus diversity and inclusivity
- Address issues of discrimination and social exclusive.

3. Functions:

- Ensure equity and equal opportunity educational institutions
- Promote diversity in student, teaching, and non-teaching staff
- Foster an inclusive and socially conducive environment for interaction.
- Sensitize the academic community on issues related to social exclusion and marginalized groups.
- Address Grievances related to discrimination and exclusion.
- Disseminate information on welfare schemes and programs.
- Facilitate barrier – free admission and registration disadvantaged students.
- Co-ordinate with Govt. and non-Government organization for academic and financial support.
- Monitor and Evaluate schemes and policies for effectiveness.

4. Advisory Committee:

The EOC is guided by the committee chaired by the Principal, SVIMS-SPMCW
The committee meets quarterly to review initiatives and ensure policy compliance.

5. Roles and Responsibilities:

- Principal (Chairperson): Ensures policy implementation and oversees committee activities.
- Committee members: Assist in implementing and reviewing EOC initiatives.
