

OM NAMO VENKATESAYA AN APPEAL – SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS SERVICE TO GOD

The funds received under CSR of SBAVP scheme will be utilized for funding clinical and translational research in order to bring innovations in diagnostics and therapeutics for the benefit of all patients in need. In addition various conferences, seminars, CME programmes will be conducted for promoting clinical research.

In this regard, we are requesting you to ensure that donation made to scientific research will be covered under Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013 by discussing it with company CSR committee.

Further, SVIMS will also accept specific donations (including donation towards CSR) which will be eligible for deduction Under Section 80 G of Income Tax Act, 1961. SVIMS will utilize those donations for providing health care services to patients. In addition, SVIMS activities which are clearly related to Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013 are specified below:

- Providing safe drinking water & sanitation facilities for patients and patient attendants
- Providing accommodation facilities to patients and patient attendants at lower cost.
- Conducting Camps and issuing of free medicines. Camps conducted by SVIMS include:
 - Juvenile diabetes camps are conducting and free medicines were issued to needy.
 - Rural Health camps are conducting by providing free medical treatment.
 - Conducting Medical camps and patients are provided free consultation and drugs required in needy areas.
